Harry Potter Places Book Five, Part One
Edinburgh Potter Trek #4
The Huffandpuff
[Updated in May, 2018]

Potterites lodging at the Balmoral Hotel should visit the 5th floor on the night before, so that you can sleep in or enjoy a leisurely breakfast, beginning your Potter Trek at 10:15am.

If you need to checkout the morning of your Edinburgh Potter Trek day, store your luggage with the Balmoral Hotel Concierge. (We hope that there's no charge for this.) Non-Balmoral-Hotel-lodgers need to start early by taking a city bus or taxi to the Balmoral Hotel Princes Street entrance.

9:00 am	Arrive at the Balmoral Hotel (Site #50) and head for Hadrian's Brasserie. Locate the nearest elevators during your sip or sup. After that, 5th floor pic-snapping shouldn't take longer than 30 minutes.	60 to 75 min	10:15 am	A 25 min  that includes Advocate's Close pix

Exit the hotel on Princes Street. Turn right into Advocate's Close and climb a short flight of steps. Go through the tunnel leading to the landing at the bottom of the steep and shallow Advocate's Close steps.

We've allowed 15 minutes to take Knockturn Alley look-alike pix here. But, since you don't have a tea reservation at the end of your trek, snap for as long as you'd like.

Climb up the Advocate's Close steps.

Don't be surprised if you need to take one or two (or five) rest breaks on the way.
